

All of Grace Manor is presently open to visitors. However, we do request that all visitors with flu like symptoms do not visit. Our seniors are very vulnerable to contagious sickness that come in from the community and they are often too weak to fight against them. Also, contagious sicknesses are difficult to contain to one resident in the community setting of a residential area. Therefore coming in sick jeopardizes the health and in some cases the lives of the seniors entrusted to our care.